

Abstract

ESA Datalabs is powered by complex state-of-the-art IT Platforms, Infrastructures and Security required to deliver a seamless user experience when interacting with Datalabs. In this session, we will provide an overview of these systems and show how ESA Datalabs abstracts all these concepts through a fully integrated and automated environment to take the user's focus off the IT aspects and keep the focus fully on data science.

